PASTOR'S CORNER

WALKING IN OBEDIENCE

Walking in obedience is walking in the truth. This means to obey the truth, to permit the truth to control every area of our lives. Second John opens and closes with an emphasis on obedience.

Unfortunately, it is much easier to study the truth, or even argue about the truth than to practice the truth. In fact, sometimes some Christians disobey the truth in the very way they try to defend it. So, one can be promoting the truth and not walking in the truth.

Brethren, the truth of the matter is that you have been taught about the truth of God's Word this year. If you walk in it, you would be set free indeed and its blessings will follow you (Deut. 28:1-14). Finally, to walk in obedience is to walk in love (2 Jn 6).

Full Obedience, is Key to My Breakthrough!!

See You Next Sunday!
Have a great week ahead.
