VOW OFFERINGS

A vow offering was a type of offering in the Jewish sacrificial system. It was a willing and sincere offering vowed to God to express gratitude for a benefit, to anticipate future favour or to please God. In the Bible, a vow offering accompanies certain vows.

A vow offering is mentioned in Leviticus Chapter 7. In this passage, it was the only offering to be eaten till the next day. This offering was given to repay a vow, in consecration or fulfillment of a vow.

Brethren, you cannot give vow offerings unless you have made at least a vow to God. Your vow offering is in fulfillment of the vow you made in the past. Therefore, be led and wise in making your vow because it must be fulfilled (Eccl. 5:4-5).
