BIBLICAL EXAMPLES OF WALKING IN OBEDIENCE

One thing is to know what to obey, another thing is to walk in obedience. Living in obedience consistently is what the Bible recommends for every believer in Christ. Scripturally, people who lived in obedience ended well in life.

To mention but a few are the following: Abraham obeyed the LORD and he was blessed in all things (Gen. 24:1). Noah followed God's command to the letter which positioned him for divine favour (Gen. 6:8). Peter obeyed the Lord's instruction to let down the nets for a catch. Consequently, Peter and his colleagues pulled in two overflowing boats of fish (Luke 5:6).

Brethren, walking in obedience implies walking in God's blessings and favour. Mind you, key to your breakthrough this year is your walking in full obedience. May the Lord empower you to live in full obedience in Jesus' name.

See You Next Sunday!
Have a great week ahead.
