PASTOR'S CORNER

THE GLORY OF CHRISTMAS

The glory of Christmas centres on Jesus, the Saviour of the world. His birth brought joy, peace, and glory of God to the earth. That glory is ever-increasing glory.

The glory of Christmas is connected to the Star the wise men saw from the East. The Star reflects the glory of Jesus at His birth. The Star was brighter and attractive because it is bigger than other stars in glory (1 Cor. 15:41).

Brethren, the Star led the wise men to Bethlehem, where Jesus was born. Today, you are the star to lead people in darkness of sin and Satan to Christ for their salvation. Mind you, you are a shining star (Psa. 148:3). Therefore, light up your world so that people may see Jesus in you at this season (Matt. 5:14-16).

Merry Christmas!
