PASTOR'S CORNER

THANKFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF KINGDOM GLORY

The concept of Kingdom Glory is broad and multifaceted, and it is frequently used in religious and spiritual contexts to describe the magnificence, strength, and holiness of the holy God. Yes, realizing that all glory belongs to God is an essential part of our faith traditions. It is an acknowledgement of His superior authority, might, and the beauty of His creation. So, expressing thanksgiving for Kingdom glory is a lovely and significant way to celebrate and build a grateful heart.

As His special creatures that have experienced the best of His glory, I urge you to come to His presence today in humility and thankfulness to acknowledge the numerous blessings of His Kingdom glory upon your life. "All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God (2 Corinthians 4:15 NIV).

May God accept us and our thanksgiving in Jesus' name. (Amen)

Divine Kingdom, My place in Christ!
My place in Christ, Divine Kingdom!

See You Next Sunday!
Have a great week ahead.
