PASTOR'S CORNER

KINGDOM THANKSGIVING

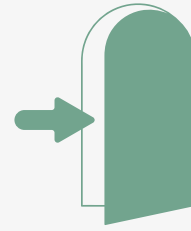

We give glory to God for His kingdom power, authority and dominion. The kingdom of God is characterized by praise. The One who is seated on the throne in the kingdom deserves and receives the praise of His people.

In praising God, thanksgiving is offered unto Him as a means of expressing appreciation. God is meant to be appreciated for His goodness, loving-kindness and faithfulness. By so doing, we demonstrate His kingdom thanksgiving.

Brethren, as children of the kingdom, we must offer our sacrifices of thanksgiving for kingdom benefits and blessings we have received and continue to receive (Ps. 103:1). This is required of us on a daily basis. Will you give thanks to God in a kingdom way this morning?
