PASTOR’S CORNER

ENTERING INTO
NEWNESS THROUGH
FASTING AND PRAYER

Our appreciation goes to the Almighty God, the Lord of grace and mercy, who has kept us to witness another Convention Sunday in peace and prosperity. We celebrate our Risen Lord for the privilege to enter into newness in all areas of life through fasting and praying. May the name of the Lord be glorified in Jesus’ name.

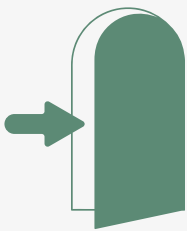

Fasting is a spiritual exercise that launches into the spiritual realm, while prayer is a loving relationship with God. Prayer draws us closer to God. Fasting positions us to exercise God’s authority to live in dominion. So, fasting and prayer enable Christians to operate in the supernatural.

Brethren, prayer is not a burden, and fasting is not meant for the pastors alone. Jesus said some things will not happen unless we engage in fasting and prayer (Matt. 17:21). This year’s theme is to encourage all of us to make fasting and praying a lifestyle for newness and freshness in 2025 (Ezra 8:23). To this end, the Lord has prepared Rev. Dr Gracious Okonrokwo of New Estate Baptist Church, Abuja to minister to us through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Happy Convention Sunday!
