PASTOR’S CORNER

BREAK FORTH

We express our gratefulness to the Almighty God for the grace to celebrate 2025 Youth Week with uncommon testimonies. We thank the Lord for His sustenance for the past one year in the lives of our young men and ladies. May God of mercy and faithfulness receive our heartfelt praise in Jesus’ name.

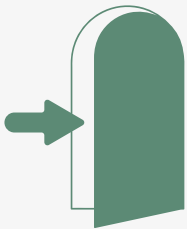

The annual Youth Week is a time of divine visitation and encounter. This year’s theme is “Break Forth” (Deut. 1:7). The theme commands us to advance or move forward from the place of stagnation. Youths of God, it is high time you trusted God for an all-round breakthrough so as to experience a new beginning.

Brethren, it does not matter how long you have been in your situation; your time to break forth has finally come. Stop living in the past, press on towards what is ahead and break all barriers before you. Then, your glory will rise and shine (Isa. 60:1-3). This year as we celebrate our youths, you shall all possess your possessions in Jesus’ name.

Happy Youth Week!

VISITORS AND NEW FRIENDS
WELCOME!

We are glad you have joined us to worship our Lord Jesus Christ today! Please fill out the white Welcome card given to you to let us know who you are and how we can serve you. Place it in the offering box or give it to an usher.
