PASTOR'S CORNER

DISCIPLINED LIFESTYLE IN
FASTING AND PRAYER

Glory to God in the highest for another Children’s Day service and the blessing of children to us as a church. Indeed, children are like arrows in the hand of a warrior. As we celebrate our children – future today, may the name of the Lord be honored in their lives both now and forever.

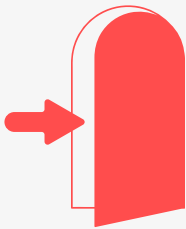

Fasting and prayer are spiritual exercises to enhance Christian faith. They are meant to generate power for believers of Christ to operate in the realm of the spirit. Fasting and prayer place Christians over the power of darkness so as to live in dominion.

Brethren, it should be noted that fasting and prayer are disciplined lifestyles of the kingdom. Everyone must learn to fast and pray continually, our children included. So, teach your children practical fasting and prayer. Mind you, this exercise must be accompanied by holiness, righteousness and purity to make it effective.

Happy Children’s Day!

We are glad you have joined us to worship our Lord Jesus Christ today! Please fill out the white Welcome card given to you to let us know who you are and how we can serve you. Place it in the offering box or give it to an usher.
