PASTOR’S CORNER

RESPONSIBLE MEN

We give glory, honour and adoration to God, Almighty, for the opportunity to celebrate another Fathers’ Day gloriously. We are grateful to the Lord for His grace and mercy upon the fathers, particularly in our church, to carry out their responsibilities successfully. Blessed be the name of the Lord, both now and forever.

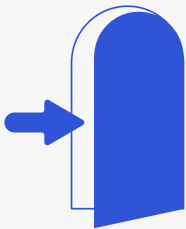

The theme, “Responsible Men”, is a reflection of what real men are ought to be in family life. A responsible man actively participates in his wife’s life and children’s lives, providing financial support, emotional security and guidance. He creates an atmosphere of peace in the home and ensures his family members have opportunities to thrive.

Brethren, responsible men are God’s representatives in their families. They must hear from God and lead the family aright. Responsible men are regarded as righteous and reliable. Fathers, as we celebrate you today, make sure you become more responsible to God, your family, your church and the society at large.

Happy Fathers’ Day!
