PASTOR’S CORNER

KINGDOM PEACE

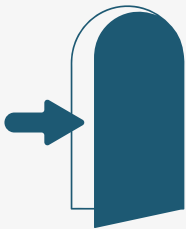

Peace of the kingdom is about the inner calm that results from confidence in one’s saving relationship with Christ—the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6). Peace as Christian character, is one of the nine graces emanating from the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). Peace can be found in Christ alone (John 14:27; 16:33).

Jesus is the only hope and safe arbiter of peace (Isaiah 9:6-7, John 14:27), and only those who have received Him as their personal Saviour and Lord can have kingdom peace which is an essential ingredient for Christian living (2 Corinthians 5:17-21). So, kingdom peace comes from a saving knowledge of Jesus. Peace was designed by God, and comes through the blood of Jesus.

Brethren, the peace of God must be evident in your life as a child of God who belongs to His kingdom. Others need to see what we have and desire to have it. Then we must be peacemakers, who are able to share the love and peace of God with a troubled world (Matthew 5:14-16).
