PASTOR'S CORNER

THANK GOD FOR A PEACEFUL HOME

The Bible exhorts every believer in Christ to be thankful in every situation of life either spiritual, physical or marital (1 Thess. 5:18). A peaceful home is a blessing from God which must be appreciated. Christian couples most especially ought to give thanks to God for a safe and harmonious home.

Thanksgiving for a peaceful home must focus on the God of peace, who gives us perfect peace in our minds and homes. This expression of gratitude should be done constantly and continually to open the door for more peace. You need to know that thankfulness leads to more peace and contentment.

Brethren, our passage today teaches us that thankful prayer is an antidote to worry and an attractive force behind a lasting peace, transcending human understanding (Phil. 4:6-7). Therefore, let us be grateful to God for the peace we have at home right now and for the peace we will have in the future. May the Lord of peace give us peace at all times in every way at home in Jesus' name.

Divine Kingdom, My Place in Christ!
My Place in Christ, Divine Kingdom!
