PASTOR’S CORNER

PASTORAL WELFARE AND
THE CHURCH’S SOCIAL
MINISTRIES INVOLEMENT

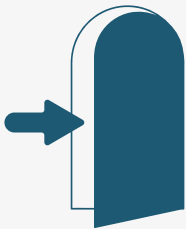

We are grateful to God, the Maker of the heavens and earth for another privilege to observe Social and Welfare Ministries Emphasis Week in perfect peace. We thank the Lord for blessing our church with these ministries and the services they render for the expansion of God’s kingdom. May the praise of the Lord continually be in our lips in Jesus’ name.

This year Social Ministries Emphasis Week focuses on the pastors and their welfare. The need to make the ministry a joy and relief for the pastors cannot be over emphasized. So, unsolicited care is needed for the pastors and their families. The congregation that is blessed through their pastor’s ministry should not ignore this open-door provoking assignment.

Brethren, you are also a minister to your Minister. According to the Scripture, he that waters, shall be watered. As your pastor faithfully discharge his duties and responsibilities, it behooves on you to express your love in appreciating and celebrating him. By so doing, you connect yourself to God’s grace in his life and ministry. May God care for all of us in Jesus’ name.

Happy Social & Welfare Emphasis Week!
