PASTOR’S CORNER

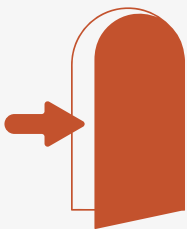

KINGDOM PRAISE

Kingdom praise is not just an act of worship but a command and lifestyle. It is a powerful force that activates God’s presence and power in your life. Kingdom praise responds to God’s greatness and sovereignty; declares God’s goodness and faithfulness and reflects on God’s pleasure over His possessions. Spending time in praise lifts one’s spirit, changes attitude and fosters joy in God’s presence. The focus of kingdom praise is on prayer of praise and songs of praise. The most powerful miracles in the Bible are products of kingdom praise. A good example is Jehoshaphat’s led praise (2 Chr. 20:21-25).

Brethren, we praise God for something good to happen. After the praise, we wait to see God at work without any struggling. Therefore, let us praise with purpose, for power and with purity for divine manifestation.
