PASTOR’S CORNER

LIGHT-UP YOUR MARRIAGE

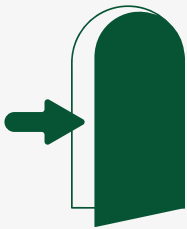

Generally, light is attractive and reflective. If you want your marriage to be attractive to people and reflect the glory of God, you must light-up your marriage. Lighting up your marriage dispels the dark areas of your relationship at home.

This act makes your union a reflection of Christ's light through intentional actions like prayer, open communication and a shared purpose, rather than just a "spark". It involves building a marriage on the rock of faith in Christ Jesus. Also, active guarding of the flame of love will help preventing manipulation of darkness in your marriage.

Brethren, lighting up marriage is the responsibility of everyone in the home. You can achieve it by becoming a light through Christ and keep the light on throughout regardless of what happened. it is high time you lighten up your relationship to be more attractive and reflective.
