PASTOR’S CORNER

YOUR CHILD AND THEIR WELL BEING

Your child’s well-being involves their overall physical, emotional, mental, and social health. It goes beyond just keeping them healthy — it includes helping them feel loved, safe, and supported as they grow.

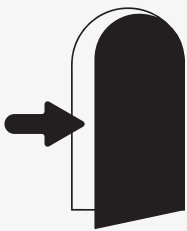

A child’s well-being is influenced by good nutrition, regular exercise, adequate rest, and a positive home environment. Emotional care is equally important — listening to them, showing affection, and encouraging open communication build confidence and resilience. Social well-being comes from learning to interact kindly with others and developing a sense of belonging.

Remember also, that your Child’s Spiritual well-being is of utmost importance as the Scripture says: “Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord, The fruit of the womb is a reward.” (Psalm 127:3NKJV).

All our efforts over our children shall not be futile in Jesus’ name (Amen).
