PASTOR'S CORNER

DANIEL: BIBLE CHARACTER STUDY

Hallelujah to God Almighty for another opportunity to collectively study the Bible as a denomination. Annual Bible study offers us the privilege to know more about the Bible in order to understand the mind of God better. This year's study focuses on Daniel as a character study.

Daniel was a young man of royal blood, who was taken captive by Nebuchadnezzar. This happened during Jerusalem first invasion around 605BC. while in captivity, Daniel served faithfully under the administration of four kings Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, Darius, and Cyrus the Great.

Brethren, Daniel's life was characterized by purpose, commitment, persistence, worship and prayer. He was a man of determination, distinction, devotion and diligence. You need these virtues to stand-out in life. I, therefore encourage you to follow the study as we learn from his life.
