PASTOR'S CORNER

RESTORER OF BROKEN WALLS

We praise the name of the Lord, the Restorer of all things for 2026 MMU Emphasis Sunday. We are thankful to the Ancient of Days for all our responsible men in the church. Congratulations on your Emphasis Sunday today.

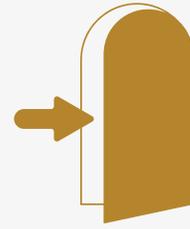

The theme for this year, is drawn from the book of Nehemiah and Isaiah, reflecting both the spiritual and moral challenges facing our contemporary time. In biblical times, walls symbolized security, identity, dignity, and divine order. Meanwhile, broken walls represent physical ruin, spiritual collapse, and social disgrace.

Brethren, our generation is confronted with broken walls of values, virtues and moral foundations, leading to corruption, lawlessness, and backwardness. If things would not go out of reach, we must arise and build the broken walls as Nehemiah did through passion, prayer, and purposeful action. May the Restorer of every brokenness empower us with all resources needed to fulfil this mandate, in Jesus' name.

Happy MMU Emphasis Sunday!
