PASTOR'S CORNER

SPEAKING THE LANGUAGE OF LOVE

It is no longer news that love is celebrated globally on February 14 annually. The language of love spoken on this day is fake, false, and fictitious. It is love expressed aiming to deceive, demean, and destroy. Such a love is not meant to be celebrated by Christians.

The language of true love is found in the Bible. Scriptures are the bases of love language, which demonstrate Christ-like love through words, actions, and service (1 Cor. 13:13; Eph. 4:15). In short, love language is the language of Christ by Christ's love.

Brethren, speaking the language of love involves using the power of love to control speech, offering sacrificial love rather than mere human emotion. Know the language of love and start speaking it right now. The more you speak of true love, the more you enhance your love life.
