PASTOR'S CORNER

THE CHURCH AND NIGERIAN TAX REFORM ACT.

We give thanks to the Lord for the reality of Lifeway International Conference of the Lagos West Baptist Conference, which started on Friday, 13th March, 2026. We are grateful to God for what He has done through this conference in the past. We celebrate God's grace for what He's doing this year. May God be praised both now and forever.

The focus of the conference is on the recent Nigerian Tax Reform Act and the responsibility of the church. Actually, this act maintains tax-exempt status for religious institutions such as churches and mosques on tithes, offerings, and donations. However, it mandates that income from business activities is taxable, and employees like pastors, imams, and staff must pay personal income tax (PAYE) on salaries and benefits in kind.

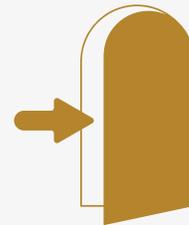

Brethren, this conference is to help us to understand the implications, implementation, and exemptions of the Act. This is necessary to enable us to discharge our civic responsibility in respect of payment of tax, following Jesus' example in Matthew 17:24-27. To have a biblical perspective on the Tax Act, we are privileged to have Rev. Dr. Abel Oladejo minister to us this morning. May God use Him to bless us mightily in Jesus' name.
