PASTOR'S CORNER

Learning to Win Souls for Christ

The principle of multiplication, both spiritually and physically, is activated and empowered by engaging in soul-winning business as a church. The church is established primarily to fulfil the Great Commission (Matt. 28:18-20). To achieve this, the Church must practise the Great Command (Jn 13:34).

The person that will win souls for Christ must first of all be won by Christ. He or she must have met the Lord, surrendered to His Lordship and followed Him as a disciple. This is the foundation of learning to win souls for Christ.

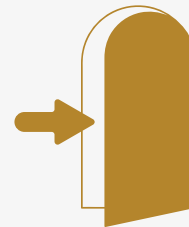

Brethren, if we fail to win souls into God's kingdom, darkness would take over the land. This year, we are to arise and shine the light of the Gospel by evangelizing the world. Therefore, let us arise and engage in both mass and personal evangelism so as to fulfil the Great Commission. May God help us to be a fruitful church in Jesus' name.
