PASTOR'S CORNER

MY MOTHER, MY MODEL

We give glory, honour and adoration to Almighty God for the reality of 2026 Mothers' Day celebration. We are thankful to the Lord for the blessing of motherhood in our church. Mothers, we recognize you today and always for your remarkable role at home, in church and in nation-building.

A mother is not only the first teacher of a child but also a model to follow and emulate in terms of Christian values and virtues. She must be a good planner, a good planter and a good pusher for her children and husband. A mother as a model must lead an exemplary life that reflects Christ likeness.

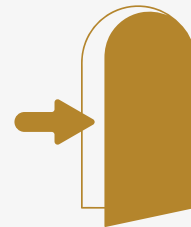

Brethren, mothers who have made great impacts deserve double honour. As we honour them, let us not forget to follow their footsteps in Christ. Abigail was a role model for her family because she rescued the husband from deadly attack and disaster (1 Samuel 25:18-31). Godly mothers, you are expected to do the same.
