PASTOR'S CORNER

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT

The Lord is the source of light. In the Lord Jesus, there is life, and the life is the light of men (John 1:4). The Lord is the light of everyone who has the life of Jesus in them.

David personalized the Lord as his light because he has a personal relationship with Him. The light of God made David confident and courageous in difficult and dangerous situations. This experience teaches us that when we know and trust God, He helps us to overcome fear in our lives.

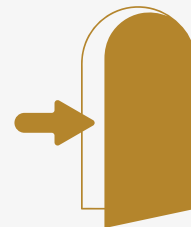

Brethren, light drives fear and darkness away. If the Lord is your light, you can rest assured that you would overcome the fear of your present circumstance, failure, and future. May the Lord continually be your light in Jesus' name.
