PASTOR'S CORNER

GLORY IN GODLINESS AND GRACE THROUGH HOLY SPIRIT EMPOWERMENT

Glory, honour and power to the king eternal for making it possible for us to observe the 2026 Lydia and G.A. Week celebration together. We are grateful to God for helping our ladies and girls to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. Congratulations to you on the occasion of your recognition, coronation, and award service today.

As young ladies, godliness and God's grace should be your focus and pride. In your daily life, you are expected to be godly in your character and maximize the grace of God for your advancement. Mind you, godliness with contentment is a great gain (1 Tim. 6:6). Part of the gain of godliness is God's grace through the power of the Holy Spirit.

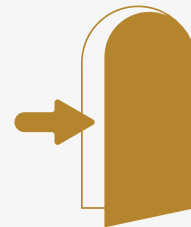

Brethren, no one can glory in godliness and grace without being empowered by the Holy Spirit. Effective service in God's kingdom requires Holy Spirit empowerment (Acts 1:8). And, it is in serving the Lord that you can glory in godliness and grace. Therefore, you must seek and wait to be empowered by the Holy Spirit so that you can glory in godly life and gracious service.
